Make Move Towards Resumption Of Trade Relations With Russia

London, Eng.—The British Government this week will forward a communication to the Russian government, which it is hoped will enable a Russian representative to visit London before the end of July, to talk with Sir Arthur Henderson, foreign secretary, on resumption of normal relations between the two countries. It is hoped that during the conversation a satisfactory understanding will be reached, enabling normal diplomatic machinery to be restored.

Premier Ramsay MacDonald, in the House of Commons recently expressed the opinion that a suitable opportunity would arise in the House soon for debate on the question of resumption of relations with the Soviet government, but added he could give no understanding to point one action until after a debate.

The prime minister also said he would consider the question of publishing the correspondence between the British and Dominion governments on the matter, but the stage had not yet been reached where publication was desired. The dominions would have to be further consulted, he said.

Asked whether Britain would renew relations with Russia even if the dominions were not in agreement, the prime minister said he was unable to make any statement on this point at present.

Sir Austen Chamberlain, former foreign secretary, asked if the House would be entitled to consider whether the Soviet replies were satisfactory before relations were resumed.

"No," Premier MacDonald stated. "We will follow the procedure the honorable gentleman himself always follows."

Hon. Winston Churchill, former chancellor of the exchequer, then suggested that unless the question was debated before the end of the session the matter might be decided and settled before the House had re-assembled after the short summer vacation.

"As far as the government can settle it, yes," Mr. MacDonald replied, "but the House will still be able to discuss the matter and decide upon it."

To Form Wheat Pool

Australian Growers Ready To Take Ballot On Question

Sydney, Australia.—Following a conference with representatives of the wheat growers on the position of the Australian wheat growers, the cabinet accepted the recommendations for a ballot among wheat growers on the question of establishing an Australian wheat pool. The conference was in favor of a minimum price of three shillings and six pence a bushel (approximately 48 lbs.) for the first advance from the pool to growers.

It is understood banks are willing to guarantee a certain amount if the pool is formed. The government's share in responsibility for such a guarantee is to be discussed later.

Ottawa Not Informed

No Communication Yet Received Regarding Imperial Economic Conference

Ottawa, Ont.—The Dominion government has not yet received a communication from the government of Great Britain either on the question of the conference or on the question of the conference. It will be possible to hold an Imperial economic conference. This was stated at the Department of External Affairs when the attention of the department was drawn to the statement of Right Hon. Philip Snowden, in the British Parliament, that such communications were being sent to the various British Dominions.

Will Exclude Trotsky
London, England.—The Daily Express states that the British Cabinet has reached a formal decision to refuse Leon Trotsky entrance to Great Britain. The exiled Soviet chief had made application for a visa soon after the Labor victory was reported at the polls.

GRAIN GROWERS WITHDRAW FROM CO-OP. UNION

Winnipeg.—One of the largest produce marketing corporations in western Canada has indicated definitely that it would withdraw its affiliation from the Co-operative Union of Canada, at the congress of that body here, when Hon. T. A. Cresser, president of the United Grain Growers, Limited, Winnipeg, replied to charges leveled against the United Grain Growers by delegates from Saskatchewan, that the Company "no longer retained its co-operative spirit among the farmers of the western provinces."

A resolution presented by H. W. Ketcheson, Davidson, Sask., chairman of the Resolutions Committee, asking the resignation of the United Grain Growers, Limited, received the support of several delegates before Hon. Cresser announced the intention of serving notice of his company's withdrawal from the Co-operative Union.

In speaking of the statement that the United Grain Growers had forsaken the co-operative method of doing business, Mr. Cresser strongly declared that the company had never swerved from its original plan to work for the benefit of the western farmer.

"Our business details have not changed in any detail since 1909 when we started business," Mr. Cresser stated. "The company has always felt a strong co-operative spirit, still does and always will."

The annual congress was denied the privilege of voting on the resolution to ask for the resignation of the United Grain Growers when Mr. Cresser made his declaration that the firm would withdraw.

In some districts of Saskatchewan, he said, the United Grain Growers is in direct opposition to local co-operative societies.

The only point on which the congress was concerned, said Mr. Ketcheson, in supporting his resolution, was whether the United Grain Growers could be rated a co-operative organization at present. He thought not.

"The people of the west who trade with the U.G.G. are not collecting profit, which, by their trade, they make for the company," he declared. "Huge money reserves have been built up but this mass of money is for the shareholders—and the shareholders only, not the farmers," he added.

When Oliver Baldwin, Laborite son of the former premier, asked how the bank paid for this service, Tom Shaw, secretary for the United Grain Growers, said, as under the statute it acts as banker for the government and has custody of the gold reserves, it is not possible to disclose.

Ernest Tuberton, Laborite, suggested the bank be abolished.

Shaw having pointed out the matter under advisement.

Chinese Evict Soviets
Tientsin.—An Agency dispatch from Tokyo said the Chinese authorities arrested 174 Soviet officials and employees of the "Chinese Eastern Railway." The happening was described as a coup aimed at ousting Russia from joint control of the line.

Two Golf Leaders
Western Canada is very much in the golfing limelight this year with both the Canadian Amateur and Western Canada Amateur championships being played over the Jasper Park Lodge course, Jasper National Park, Alberta, August 19-24, inclusive. Much organization has been necessary to make good of the tournament, and none have worked harder than C. E. Harvey, of Winnipeg, president of the Royal Canadian Golf Association (left), and C. W. Jackson, of Winnipeg, president of the Western Canada Golf Association.

Ask For Drastic Punishment

Officials Demand Trial Of Vice-Consul's Wife Under Chinese Law

San Francisco.—A demand that Mrs. T. K. Kuo, wife of the Chinese Vice-consul in San Francisco, be tried under Chinese law in China and put to death if convicted for her alleged part in bringing a large consignment of opium to this country, was made here by the executive committee of the Kuomintang of America.

It was explained that the Nationalist government had enacted stringent laws against trafficking in opium in China and that such laws provided the death penalty in case of their violation by persons connected with the government.

Yink Kuo, upon the advice of friends, terminated his connection with the consulate. Neither Mrs. Kuo nor her husband have been placed under arrest.

Cowboy Loses Right Eye
But Finished Bid For Prize At Calgary Stampede

Calgary.—An outstanding feat of human endurance was performed at the Calgary Stampede when a cowboy, known as "Big Boy," lost his right eye while competing for the prize money for the day for this event although he suffered his injury early in the test. He was taken to hospital after the event and the remains of his eye were removed.

The cowboy, who is known as "Big Boy," is expected to make recovery. Last year the Canada Kilo was the champion all-round cowboy.

Concessions For Tourists
Broadening Conditions Under Which Visitors To Canada May Bring In Motor Cars

Ottawa.—A memorandum is going forward to the collectors of the national revenue broadening the conditions under which visitors to Canada may bring in their motor cars. The new regulations will be issued by Robert Broadner, commissioner of customs.

In the past a tourist from the United States could bring his car into Canada for a period of 30 days, but now he is expected to make recovery. Last year the Canada Kilo was the champion all-round cowboy.

High Grade Wheat Is Still Boast of Canada
Fort William, Ont. Wheat was still the boast of Canada and still is the boast of Canada.

Dean Rutherford, member of the Saskatchewan Royal Grain Commission, said that the quality of Canadian wheat was still the boast of Canada.

Dean Rutherford was replying to an editorial which appeared in a local paper, a criticism of the quality of Canadian wheat.

Canadian wheat has a quality of its own, he declared.

"For our number five wheat was quoted at equal and a little better than other export wheat from other countries," he declared.

While Britain will buy American wheat when it is cheaper, Britain always wants Canadian wheat, Dean Rutherford declared.

Dean Rutherford said that the United States government quoted the price of the best exportable Argentine wheat at 10 cents less than Canadian No. 3 Northern, and the best United States export wheat at 11 cents under the same grade of Canadian wheat.

The commissioner said that lack of rain in the fall of 1926 and 1927 had damaged the crops. The same was true of the crops of 1928.

Dean Rutherford said that the farmer cannot be blamed for this, he stated.

"Our wheat holds its place in the markets of the world with any wheat in any country of the world," Dean Rutherford concluded.

A representative of the local newspaper whose editorial was under discussion, declared that it could not be denied that Manitoba No. 1 hard wheat, which has the reputation of western Canadian wheat, has been vanishing from the market.

No place in the west No. 1 hard wheat today, he declared. He drew attention to the report of the seed branch on the seed sown by the western farmer.

This report showed that in a large number of cases seed taken from the hopper of the truck showed that the seed was actually sown, fifty thousand seed seeds per acre. The condition of western fields in some sections were such that it was impossible to say whether a stocked field contained stocks of grain or of weeds. He claimed that these conditions were under the control of the farmer.

For these reasons, he believed there was justification for most of the statements in the editorial question. It was possible that No. 3 wheat was all that was claimed but the farmer no longer has been No. 3.

The commission brought its session at the head of the lake to a close with today's meeting. The commissioners departed by lake steamer to continue their investigations at the lower lake ports and the Atlantic seaboard ports.

SHOULD CHECK BEFORE DRIVING

The use of the driver's license should have a beneficial effect on the safety of motor car traffic in Alberta.
The new motor regulations are designed to keep a check on all drivers of motor vehicles, and to properly administered, it will reduce the danger of collision and motor automobiles.

Under the new regulations the driver who is inclined to be reckless is in danger of losing his license suspended for a month or two months, for any length of time the court may deem advisable. This should act as a deterrent to reckless driving and driving while intoxicated, and it is hoped, will result in a fewer number of accidents.

To bring about the desired results, conditions and inspections will be necessary before the public is resumed the government really means business. So far as one license has been obtained, but when the new machinery for traffic regulation is thoroughly settled and in good running order, we may expect a few more up-sets in the ranks of car drivers and the ending of speeding and reckless driving.

A DELICIOUS PARK

Officers of Bassano take pride in the good appearances of their park and in the general beauty of the town. The townspeople have spent a great amount of time and money in planting and caring for trees, bushes, and lawns, and their efforts have been rewarded. Today thousands of fine trees are growing on the trees and around the homes of Bassano residents, and many of the citizens have very fine flower and vegetable gardens.

There is no spot in town, however that is very much in need of attention.
We are in the C. P. R. park just west of the city station.

Some of the trees and bushes are growing in this park, but the present one has attracted attention to the trees and bushes, and the town people have a wonderful massive of a beautiful garden.

A railway company keep a passenger train and orderly, but the passengers have been suddenly notified. We humbly suggest that the company set to work at once on the park a more presentable appearance.

NIGHT SWIMMING

The suggestion has been made, and we think it a good one, that electric lights be installed at the swimming pool. The pool is now the most popular place in town. Boys and girls, men and women, enjoy many hours of good and healthful exercise there every day.

Under the present rules the pool closes at 8 p. m. This is a reasonable closing hour for the younger children, but the older boys and girls and the adults would enjoy swimming till ten o'clock or even a later hour.

By installing lights in the dressing rooms and stringing a few lights over the pool, it could be made a place of night. And operating the pool at night might attract many visitors from the country districts, people who are unable to come in during the day or early evening.

The swimming pool committee should consider this matter and see if these finances will permit the installation of electric lights at the pool.

ON VACATION
By H. Greenwald Hardy
To sit beside the lake and late Throughout these golden summer days;
Henceforth some shady bough to lie
And watch the white clouds drifting by!
To feel the cool, refreshing breeze,
And learn the lark's glad melodies.
Or fish along some shady stream And smoke my cigarette --- and dream!

To wander free, by hill and dale,
While yet the dawn is fair and pale.
Or watch, beyond some rocky spur,
The amber sunset's smoky blur.
To feel the righteousness of the earth,
Its high content --- its mystic mirth;
And always, at the long day's end
The crowning pleasure of a friend

Didn't Fear God
A woman in a small town, who was a common law church goer, was called on by another woman of the same church an hour or so before church time. She found her seated in a small back room, putting the finishing touches on a new dress which she wished to wear to church that morning.
"Where are you, haled up in this little back room for?" asked the caller.
"Don't you suppose God can see you sewing in here?"
"Yes, I do," smiled the worker.
"But he won't make half the talk about it that the neighbors would if they saw me."

Science and Invention
One lack of a cheap, efficient method of indoor heating is deplored by a household editor. Theaters are well cooled by mechanical means, and some offices, but in the home we still suffer. However, the writer is overlooking something.
Visiting at another home you can employ certain devices which though primitive, will reduce the temperature almost to zero. For example:

1. When there is nothing in the house to eat.
2. Fall to notice that the house has just been cleaned and redecorated.
3. Remark that your child passed his course with all A's when you know your business child did not pass.
4. Intimate that a "dress is exactly like the one you saw somebody else wearing."
5. Betray the fact that you called at another home first, but failed to find the people in.

Union Hates

They were Court martialled the soldier for desertion, and the case looked very black until the young officer for the defence arose. "Sir," he said, addressing the President, "I admit appearances are against this man. But I propose to prove that in civil life he was a plumber and he was only going back for his equipment."

The Quaint Book of the 16th Century

In three hundred years the art of brewing became an important industry in England. In the 16th century it was no more than a craft, the secret of which was passed from father to son. In 1534 H. Russell published a book in the volume of 16th century with the quaint title of "The Art and Mystical Secret of Brew." Today malt beverages, BEER - ALE - STOUT are considered health drinks.

Where BEER has once been introduced it has generally become the national beverage. Enjoy Brit in Brewing.

WHAT IS HOME WITHOUT A MOTHER?

"What is home without a mother?" Ask the ladies, they all know Of the poor vagrant husbands Driven to thousands.

See them waiting in their gardens, Gloomy, downcast, sad, and lone, Mournful and miserable and woe.

Like a dog who's lost his home, See them, as they wait's wife's leaving With the kiddies on the train.

"I can manage fine, old sweetheart, 'Till you're back again."

Then he waves his hand so lightly, As the train speeds on its way.

Does a two-step on the platform, Letting freedom have its play.

For several nights there are just lovely: Mar and Harry go to lodge.

Bill at Mar's house after dinner; Bill at this time is must dodge.

They spend a quiet little evening Talking over single days.

Those few days may be long as forever, Happy, cheerful, single days.

Next night they go out to Charlie's, Talk again of things they're done;

Bill's the next night, then to Harry's— "Ain't we havin' lots of fun?"

Singing dear old Swanee River, Not forgetting Adeline.

Roaring out with extra gusto "Darling, now for you I pine."

Next time they go round to Billy's, Doc is there, and Perry too.

Andy also feeling grumpy, Red and others join the crew.

Then again they are convivial, Bachelordom it sure is great.

But that wretched morning after Always comes as sure as fate.

See them eating at the cafe, After, say, a week or so.

Every bit of food is choking, All of them are feeling blue.

"Gee, you know, I miss the Missus," Bill remarks in accents low.

As he fondly pats the dog, And the dog he seems to know.

Parties now have grown tamer, Not just what they used to be;

The babbies now meet one another, And it's very plain to see.

That their company is not fully, They can't sing Swanee Adeline.

Just "Awearin' for You stuff, Smith's Through and Sweetheart Mine."

Dirt dishes hit the ceiling, Broken crackers, sodas, etc. again.

For a house it is a case, Beds not made since wife left them.

Garden plots are going dry, Dirty clothes in state of decay.

Crusts and ends of some stale pie, Hushy now revolves a wire.

"Wife and kids are coming home," He lets out a wild old "Whoopie!"

Never more he'll let them roam, Once again he's on the platform.

Lauching one again in joy, But because they're coming back.

Oh, boy!

Hushy has all been swept and tidied, Out five dollars, but what of that?

No more nights of wondrous parties, No more playing three queens pat.

"What is home without a mother?" Say, boy, don't be such a ham.

Home without the wife and kiddies Isn't worth hussano dam.

—Sunk
